

Working Equitation Clinic

Clinician: Kimberly Cox

Part I: Dressage Test and Evaluation – Saturday, July 20

Part II: Ease of Handling Obstacles – Sunday, July 21

MRAS is offering a 2-part clinic for riders interested in Working Equitation. Whether you are completely new to the sport, want to improve your skills or would like to participate in preparation for an upcoming show or event. Riders are welcome in any style of tack, English or Western.

Part I: Dressage Test and Evaluation. Each rider will be provided a 30-minute time slot to ride a dressage test of their choosing, receive feedback from Kim who is a certified dressage coach, and WE Judge, and finally have an opportunity to re-ride the same test. Limit: 8 rider/time slots between 3pm and 7pm.

Part II: Working Equitation Ease of Handling Obstacles. A full course will be set up for each group to learn and practice (max of 4 riders per group). Kim will provide guidance and support for participants in order to ride the obstacles correctly, with confidence, and receive feedback to glean extra points at your next show. There may be a concentration on some of the more technical obstacles within the course. Limit: 12 riders

If interested in registering and to group the participants effectively, please indicate the following:

- (A) No Working Equitation Experience / New to the sport
- (B) Working Equitation Experience
- (C) Experience and looking for Show Prep feedback
